Thomas Kilcourse was held from St. Louis Bertrand church, many old friends and acquaintances attending the solemn services. He was sev enty-eight years old and long a respected resident of Louisville. Surviving him is his bereaved wife, Mrs. Annie Curley Kilcourse, 2016 South First street.

Monday morning Leo B. Esterle, twenty-one years old, was called by death at the home of his parents, Frank and Estelle Esterle, 2302 St. Louis avenue. He was a dutiful son, and his demise when life was full of promise is deeply regretted by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances, who extend sympathy to the bereaved parents.

St. Edward's church, of Jeffersontown, lost its oldest and a most respected member when Ferdinand Schmidt passed to his eternal reward. Living an active and exem-plary life, he had attained his eighty-seventh year. The funeral was held Wednesday morning, Rev. Father Reverman conducting the solemn obsequies.

Mrs. Mary Hellenthal, eighty-four years old, widow of Peter Hellenthal, died Sunday morning at her residence, 629 South Shelby street. She is survived by two sons, Jacob and Adam Hellenthal, and one daughter, Sister Mary Hedwig, a teacher in St. Vincent de Paul school. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at St. Martin's church.

IRISH VICTORY FUND.

-Dearmuid Lynch, National Secretary of the Friends of Irish Freedom, has sent everyone connected with the Irish Victory Fund the following communication, the decisions being final because it is essential to have the Irish Victory Fund campaign brought to a close before President De Valera begins his tour

"A special committee, after con sultation with President De Valera, submitted the result of their deliberations to the meeting of the Na tional Council held August 7, and the council unanimously decided as

"That the Irish Victory definitely close on August 31, 1919.
"That all monies collected—minus the amount expended in local advertising and raising the fund-shall on or before August 31 be forwarded to the National Treasurer, Michael B. McGreal, 280 Broadway, New York. "That each State and local finance committee shall submit to national headquarters a statement showing the total amount of expenses incurred in this connection.
